

Part-Time Educator

JCHAI – Supporting Independence. Building Community.

Position Overview

Join JCHAI in making a meaningful impact! In this role, you'll design, facilitate, and support engaging social, educational, and recreational programs for adults (18+) with mild to moderate developmental or intellectual disabilities and/or high-functioning autism. JCHAI Educators foster community, independence, and belonging by leading inclusive group activities and 1:1 services at JCHAI's centers and in the community.

Responsibilities

- Plan and lead group programs such as cooking, arts, fitness, life skills workshops, and community outings
- Provide 1:1 support of clients with appointments, shopping, and community outings
- Teach independent living skills (organization, routines, home management)
- Provide supervision and guidance to ensure the safety and active participation of all members
- Promote socialization, teamwork, and the development of friendships and interpersonal skills
- Collaborate with fellow staff on program schedules, themes, and special events
- Model and encourage independence, problem-solving, and self-advocacy
- Maintain attendance records, incident reports, and other required documentation
- Communicate effectively with staff, members, and families as appropriate

Qualifications

- Education: Bachelor's degree preferred (social work, psychology, education, or related field).
- Experience: At least one year working with individuals with intellectual disabilities, autism, or similar needs; experience leading group activities strongly preferred.
- Practical: Strong interpersonal and organizational skills; ability to adapt activities to varied needs
- Personal: Creative, compassionate, and enthusiastic about inclusive community-building.
- Transportation: Valid driver's license, reliable vehicle, and insurance; willingness to transport clients

Schedule & Location

Part-time — flexible hours, including some evenings or weekends based on program needs.

Our programs are located in:

- BuxMont (Bucks/Montgomery Counties)
- Bryn Mawr
- Doylestown

Our 1:1 services are provided across Greater Philadelphia and surrounding counties. Travel is regionally clustered to minimize driving.
